

INDICE GENERALE DELLA COLLANA

« N U N T I A »

Il presente indice si compone di due parti. Nella prima parte si indicano le pagine di Nuntia che si riferiscono alle singole sezioni dei canoni seguendosi in ciò l'ordinazione sistematica del « Codex Canonum Ecclesiarum Orientalium ». Quando sembra opportuno, all'interno delle singole sezioni, si indicano anche alcuni canoni specifici, nei casi di più difficile individuazione delle loro menzioni nei fascicoli di Nuntia. Per il resto non sarà difficile agli studiosi stessi, individuare per ogni singolo canone del Codice, a quale sezione dell'indice esso esattamente si riferisca.

La seconda parte dell'indice riguarda alcune singole voci, che non sono comprese tra quelle indicate nei titoli delle singole sezioni della prima parte.

I

INDICE RELATIVO AI CANONI

Nota: ai fascicoli di Nuntia ci si riferisce con il semplice numero del relativo fascicolo, senza specificarne l'annata alla quale esso appartiene. Fino al fascicolo N. 24-25, che contiene lo « Schema Codicis Iuris Canonici Orientalis » del 1986, le prime cifre si riferiscono alle pagine, mentre le sigle « c » o « cc » significano i canoni che si trovano nelle pagine indicate. Al N. 24-25 di Nuntia si riportano solo le cifre dei canoni, senza un'indicazione delle pagine. Nei fascicoli susseguenti si indicano invece solo i numeri delle pagine nelle quali si tratta di almeno uno dei canoni indicati nel fascicolo N. 24-25.

La sigla « TI » significa « Testi iniziali », cioè quelle parti del Codice orientale che non sono state pubblicate. Mentre non si indicano « testi iniziali » per le parti promulgate con i noti quattro « Motu proprio » perché è evidente che il lavoro di revisione iniziò partendo del testo di questi quattro « Motu proprio ».
